Chief Justice Wm. H. Taft has begun service in his new position at Washington. This will round out a very distinguished career.

A Cincinnati grand jury has indicted 18 cement manufacturers for sticking too close together. They "set" so nicely with war prices that nobody has been able to break it up. Looks just like an old-fashioned trust.

Louisa goes right ahead with her improvements and building program, giving no heed to the cry of hard times. The street paving movement begun last year is being followed by a forward movement of a magnitude never before experienced in the same length of time.

This is a poor place just now for the pessimist, the knacker and the sore-head. Here optimism, public spirit, co-operation, progressiveness, are the qualities in foremost places now.

We've started, let's keep going.

STAR CAMPERS WRITE OF BURNAUGH CAMP

The following letters have been received by County Agent G. C. Baker from two of the star campers at Burnaugh. Lawrence county had about twice as many boys and girls in camp as Boyd county. While there about 400 visitors called. Among them were three schools and the Wayne county, W. Va., camp which was across the river.

A star camper is one who answered every roll call and obeyed all rules:

Ledocio, Ky., Sept. 17, 1921.
Mr. G. C. Baker, Co. Agt.
Louisa, Kentucky.

Dear Mr. Baker: Pardon my delay in writing in regard to the Burnaugh camp.

I want to say it was a grand success and am looking forward to next year hoping we members who attended this year will be able to attend next year with a larger enrollment.

With success to all the members,
I remain, your star camper,
GRATHIEL JORDAN.

Monday morning, August 22, ten boys and girls boarded the train for Burnaugh where the boys and girls H. H. H. H. club camp was held.

When we arrived at Burnaugh we carried our luggage almost half a mile and finally with aching arms and tired feet we arrived on the grounds. We were the first there and we helped to put up the tents.

Supper was the first meal served on the grounds.

We were lined up and organized into four Indian tribes, then we marched to supper.

After supper we lined up to the stakes and marched to vesper services where we had a talk by the leaders. We then marched to the campfire where we had songs and stories. At ten o'clock we went to bed.

No whispering after the whistle blew.

At 5:30 the whistle blew and we were up, dressed, washed and ready for setting up exercises at six. At 6:30 we had breakfast which was mighty good for we sure had a good cook. We then had five classes which kept us busy till dinner. At 1:30 we began playing and played till 5:30. At six we had supper. Then as on the night before we had wipers and campfires.

Three happy days of this and on the morning of August 26 we started for home.

Boys and girls, we must get busy and organize these clubs all over our county.

The educational value of this work is very great.

We are going to have a camp next year. Thanks to Mr. Baker and Mr. Amburgey, our county agents of Boyd and Lawrence counties.

EDITH CHEAP.

CONVICTIONS IN PIKE.

In the Pike Circuit Court Tuesday, sentence was passed on one man for electrocution and seven others for penitentiary terms.

NOTICE TO THE VOTERS OF LAWRENCE CO., BOTH LADIES AND GENTLEMEN:

It is being rumored and circulated in this county by my opponent, Jim Walter Young, that I have had such unbecoming talk about the ladies that it is impossible for me to have printed so that you can fully understand it. However, it will be easy to understand whether it's true or not. I have traced this dirty lie to Jim Walter Young. I say it's a lie without any foundation. I defy Jim Walter Young or anyone else to prove what he has gone out and circulated.

There isn't a man in this county that has any more respect for ladies than I have. Now, listen, he claims to be a good L. O. O. F. and every Oddfellow knows the oath and obligation he has taken. Has he regarded it? No, he has strayed so far away that he is a stranger to the principals of Oddfellowship. I have gone as far down the Jericho road as ever Jim Walter Young did and even farther, for I have taken the Grand Lodge degree and I'm thankful that I have never forgotten my oath and obligation as he has done. I have traveled farther toward the east than ever Mr. Young has and I have not the least fear but what I can prove my reputation and character far above what Mr. Young is trying to get the people to believe it is. Has he acted like a good, clean, citizen? I can prove by good honest citizens that Jim Walter Young has told and circulated falsehoods on me and I intend for the people to know that it is false and untrue.

He and his cohorts have undertaken to tell the people that I belong to the town click and sit around on goods boxes and don't work. Is this true? No, he can't prove anything of that kind. There isn't a man in this county that's worked any harder than I have. I haven't been out of a job since I have been big enough to carry a hoe or an ax to the field. I have worked at the very hardest of work. I have followed the cross ties from the woods to the grade and helped to lay the steel on them and then tamped them under the rails. Is that sitting around on goods boxes? Is that what the town click does? In fact is a man bright that will go around misrepresenting the truth? Trying to deceive the people. I say to you that it looks to me like there is water where there should be gray matter, commonly called brains. Isn't it a fact that a man that will go out misleading and trying to deceive the people is a cripple to one party and a disgrace to the other? My answer is, yes.

He or some of his cohorts is telling that I have promised a bootlegger deputy. No bigger lie ever came from the lips of any man.

I expect to ask the good citizens of this county for their advice in regard to this, and I promise to give the people a fair, square deal. No one only a sober, honest, upright man need expect any place under me. I ask you as voters of this county if this isn't fair? So don't be misled by those who are trying to mislead you.

I haven't tried to deceive any one nor don't intend to. I only ask for a fair deal and for the truth to be told. Truth is mighty and it will prevail. Asking a fair consideration of the voters of this county, I remain,

Respectfully yours,
H. B. MUNCY.

TWO OLD MAIDS

GALLUP

Mrs. Addie Burgess, teacher of Trace Branch school brought her school children over to visit Gallup school last Friday.

Mrs. Wm. Belcher, Mrs. James Irwin and Mrs. Dixie Childers and other visitors were present. They were entertained by a spelling match and a ball game between the two schools.

The score was 17 to 6 in favor of Gallup. The other school beat Gallup only one in spelling. We think a holiday like this will cause the children to be more interested in school work and to see how the other schools are progressing.

The ice cream festival given here last Saturday night was largely attended with everybody having a good time. Proceeds will go to the church.

Herbert Hollandsworth of Huntington, was present at the ice cream festival Saturday night.

WAYNE ITEMS

Wm. S. Napier, a well known and prominent Wayne county citizen, died at his home in East Lynn last week. Mr. Napier, who was 78 years old had been in poor health for some time.

He was one of the leading citizens of the county. He sprang from one of the first settlers of Wayne county and was a man of splendid physique and of such a kindly nature he was liked by all who knew him. For fifty years he was prominent in business and politics in this county. He was first engaged in the timber business and in merchandising. During the last twenty years he had engaged extensively in the coal industry, and had amassed a comfortable fortune. His life was one of unceasing activity, and his kindly deeds will long be remembered by hundreds.

He is survived by one sister, Mrs. Ellen Fry of Ceredo, and a brother, Judge P. H. Napier of Wayne.

John S. Dowler, principal of the Two Mile Graded School, died from an attack of quincy at three o'clock Friday morning after a two-day illness. Mr. Dowler was a native of Lafayette, Wirt-co. but was teaching in Wayne county. He was about 35 years old.

He was a veteran of the World War serving one year in the States and about a year abroad.

SCHOOL NOTES

The Athenian Literary Society of the Louisa and Lawrence County High School gave the first program of the session on last Friday afternoon, September 30, at which time the following program was rendered:

Song—America—By Society.
Reading—By Opal Walters.
Violin Solo—By Burton Queen.
A Talk—Julia Jane Burgess.
News of the week—By Dorothy Vinson.

Debate—Resolved that the compulsory school attendance law should be rigidly enforced for all students attending the Elementary and High Schools of Kentucky, regardless of the age of the students attending.

Affirmative—Hubert Chaffin, Ella Johns, Emanuel Sargent.
Negative—Alva See, Edith Norton, Joe McDowell.

Realizing the rapidly growing importance of this branch of work in the High Schools of the country and the benefits to be derived therefrom by the students, it has been decided to allow a certain amount of credit to be counted toward the prescribed units of our English course, to those students who become active members of the society and take an active part on its program.

It is very gratifying to note that a large majority of our students have already placed their names on the active roll of the society, a splendid interest is being manifested in the work and we are looking forward to a most successful year for this organization.

EAST POINT

Mr. Edwin J. Friend died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. J. C. B. Auxier, Sunday, Sept. 25, at 10:30 a. m. age 58 years. He was the last of a family of 14 children. His parents were among the first settlers at Prestonsburg, Floyd county. At the age of 27 he was married to Miss Emma C. Sturgill. She died two years later, leaving one child. He was later married to Miss Nancy Plannery of Elliott county. To this union 5 children were born, four of whom are living. He was a graduate of Emory and Henry college of Virginia and taught school in different parts of Kentucky for about forty years. He was accounted one of the best educators in the State. In his last days he claimed he had made his peace with God and prayed for those who had so tenderly cared for him. He had been an invalid for some time before his death. His children that survive him are Mrs. J. C. B. Auxier, East Point; Mrs. J. Moles, Auxier; Mrs. Lewis Conley, Paintsville; Mrs. Eddie Presley, Youngstown, O.; and Charley Friend of Junction City. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Green Allen of Weeksbury, assisted by Rev. Tom Walker, after which the body was laid to rest in the old Conley cemetery at East Point. Among those who attended the funeral were Mrs. Elizabeth Goble, Mrs. Emma A. Midgely, Sam Spradlin and Charley Friend of Prestonsburg.

Adam Harman was transacting legal business at Denila last week.

Uncle Ben Vanhorn was at Fullers station Saturday.

Dear reader, the writer has passed our three score years and once in life we had a father, mother and many loved ones, but they have crossed the last river and joined the heavenly inhabitants. They washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. They were once as we are now, inhabitants of the earth, mingling with such scenes as are common to us. They loved and longed, they hoped and feared, they wept and sung as we do, yet now are they in the vast temple of God in heaven and they serve him day and night. While they were upon earth they went forth to duty amid the heat of the summer's sun and the cold of the winter's snow. They tossed their aching heads upon a sleepless pillow and watched the weary hours go slowly away. They felt the pangs of ill-requested love, the bitterness of disappointment and the depression of physical weakness and disease. The pictures painted by hope were washed away by tears. But what a mighty change have they experienced! They are now in the "house not made by hands, eternal in the heavens." They have left the storms of earth behind them, they stand before the throne, they are pure, washed in the blood of the Lamb. They are triumphant. The white robes with which they are clothed are significant of their victory; the palms they bear denote the eternal festival upon which they have entered.

We must not regard the picture of the heavenly host as perfected. It has been much increased since John saw it. It is increasing now day by day. The train of the blessed as they enter heaven is an endless festal line that come and come and come without cessation, they come from our households, our precious fathers, mothers, sisters, brothers, companions, children, aunts, grandfathers, cousins, friends and neighbors and stand before the throne, unfolding their beauties and powers to the great eternal, as the rose bud opens to the warmth of the morning sun. Have we not a brother or sister whose sun went down before he reached the Meridian? Have we not a husband or wife who fell by the destroyer in the prime of life? Have we not a father or mother whose sainted heads were laid to rest after a full life spent in the service of the Savior?

Yes, thank God, they are now among the shining ones. Oh, how we love our sainted dead, they left our homes and crossed the eternal abyss and have taken their abode and joined the heavenly choir. Sing on, dear ones, on.

Ed. K. Spencer returned Wednesday from a visit to Brad Chaffin at Danville, Ohio. A part of the time was spent on a fishing trip in Michigan.

Rusty Dollars

Why let your money rust? Whenever you allow money to be idle, it is gradually rusting—not the rust that deteriorates a tin cup, but an invisible, colorless rust which absorbs your money rapidly.

We have materials in the form of Lumber, Millwork, Cement, Paints, Roofing, Builders' Hardware, Windows, Doors, etc., which you can buy at such attractive prices that this abominable rust can be eradicated.

Now is the opportune time to invest in building, as the demand for buildings is greater than has ever been known.

We handle Certain-teed Roofing in all grades, also Hanna's Green Seal Paints.

"Seeing is believing"—Come in and let us show you what fine grades of materials we carry in stock.
